

All-Steel Offices Opened.

The offices of the All-Steel Motor Car company were opened today for business, with hours from 8 o'clock in the morning to six at evening. The remainder of the furniture is being brought in today.

Mr. Goodhart, sales manager, is in charge of the office. Charles Smith, the inventor of the machine, will arrive tonight to take up his permanent residence here.